We're attempting to collect unpaid employment taxes owed from the business named below.

Business Name: CITY OF RICHWOOD

A portion of the unpaid employment taxes owed by the business relate to trust fund taxes. We're pursuing collection of the unpaid employment taxes, and are initiating an investigation to determine who may be personally responsible for the unpaid trust fund portion of the total unpaid employment tax. We've received information indicating you may have some responsibility related to the unpaid trust fund tax for this business. We encourage you to contact us if you have information that would help us determine your personal liability.

Generally, the IRS will deal directly with you or your duly authorized representative. However, we sometimes talk with other persons if we need information that you've been unable to provide, or to verify information we've received. If we do contact other persons, such as a neighbor, bank, employer, or employees, we'll generally need to tell them limited information, such as your name. The law prohibits us from disclosing any more information than is necessary to obtain or verify the information we're seeking. Our need to contact other persons may continue as long as there's activity in your case. If we do contact other persons, you have a right to request a list of those contacted.

In addition, the Taxpayer Bill of Rights describes ten basic rights that all taxpayers have when dealing with the IRS. To help you understand what these rights mean to you and how they apply visit our website IRS.gov.

If you have questions regarding this letter or want to request a list of persons we've contacted, please contact the person listed at the top of this letter. When you write, include the person to contact name and the employee ID number shown above.

Sincerely,

EUGENE W STUMP JR
